SHREWSBURY LASSES

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PFD2EaNb7Vg>

Pronounced "Shrozebury" (historical pronunciation)

Formation: Longways set for 3 couples X 3 times through,

Music: 40 bars music Own tune ECD Misc.

- 4 First man step and honour the second lady, to the right and to the left.
- 4 First man turn second lady with both hands.
- 4 1-4 First lady step and honour the second man, to the right and to the left.
- 4 First lady turn second man with both hands.
- 2 First couple cast down one place, second couple moving up.
- 4 First and third couples circle to the left once round.
- 6 First man dance* up round the second couple
WHILE the first lady dances down round the third couple meeting in the middle place with a two hand turn halfway.
- 2 Third couple cast UP, first couple moving down.
- 4 Second and third couples circle left ("hands four") once around.
- 6 Third man dance up around the second couple
WHILE the third lady dances down around the first couple, meeting in the middle place with a two hand turn halfway.

40

It repeats with twos as the new ones; then again with threes as the new ones.

All that dancing around the other couples is clockwise; and as we did it, in Playford long ago, *"dance" in that context was interpreted as "skip". So, if possible, the dancing couple skips away from the circle left, each to go around an end couple. (Julie Bishop).
